Description

The ITEP First Nation Community-Based Program has evolved since 1978 into a massive delivery structure of the 4 year B.Ed degree program to First Nation communities. ITEP delivers programs in accordance with community educational needs and provides teacher candidates with teaching areas in the sciences, English, Native studies, and Cree language. The First Nation Community-Based Program delivery has now extended its focus to Pre-Professional Nursing programs, as well as Science and Math. The advent of graduate program delivery has been a result of First Nation communities wanting a continuation and advancement of education opportunity for their membership.

THE SUCCESS OF ITEP IS THE SUCCESS OF ITS 1500 GRADUATES!
